

Flow Consulting Inc. joins the International Consulting Network (ICN).

London (UK) 19th September 2016 – The International Consulting Network (ICN) Board of Directors confirms that Flow Consulting Inc. has been appointed as an Associate Member of the International Consulting Network.

Following an extensive search of US based consultancies Flow Consulting Inc. was identified as a potential candidate to join the International Consulting Network. Initial discussions between members of the ICN Board and Reese Bourgeois, Flow Consulting’s Managing Director, confirmed the similarities of the organisations. Reese attended the July Board Meeting in London and was formally appointed as an Associate Member of the Executive Board.

“The selection of Flow Consulting Inc. to the International Consulting Network is a vital step in supporting our private equity and corporate clients globally” commented Hans-Georg Scheibe, member of the Management Board at ROI Management Consulting AG . “We know that Reese and his team are equally bound by our high professional standards and share our operational expertise”.

Keith Bissett, the recently appointed Chairman of the International Consulting Network also added “we were amazed at the similarity in values and experiences between Flow and the existing partners, it already feels as though Reese has been part of the team for years. We would like to welcome Reese to the team and look forward to his contribution in helping us create innovative solutions for our global clients.”

In reply Reese Bourgeois said “we at Flow Consulting are truly honoured to be invited and accepted to be part of this prestigious group, and we look forward to partnering with the ICN team in delivering successful projects that delight our mutual clients.”
